

FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS SECTION
NORMAN H. ROOS, CHAIR

The Financial Institutions Section has completed an active and successful year through the efforts of its officers, executive committee, and members. The section has focused on its educational goal of conducting quality programs using outside speakers. Other CBA sections co-sponsored some meetings with the Financial Institution Section and financial services industry representatives were invited to, and attended, several of the section's meetings.

The following is a list of programs at the section's meetings during the 2006–2007 year.

November 28, 2006

The National Insurance Act of 2006: Is a Federal Charter for Insurance Companies Necessary?

Speakers: The Honorable Susan F. Cogswell, commissioner of the Department of Insurance for the State of Connecticut
Paul Kochenburger, executive director of the Insurance Law Center, University of Connecticut School of Law
Catherine Paolino, senior counsel with the Law Department of the American Insurance Association

February 22, 2007

Annual Commissioner Meeting

Speaker: The Honorable Howard F. Pitkin, Connecticut Banking Commissioner

March 29, 2007

The Treacherous World of Arbitration Carve-outs for Judicial Remedies: Attention Commercial, Consumer, Financial Institutions and Franchise Lawyers.

Speakers: David M.S. Shaiken, Commercial Law & Bankruptcy Section
Elizabeth C. Yen, Consumer Law and Financial Institutions Sections
Kevin M. Kennedy, Franchise Law Section